News and Prayer Requests from the Free Presbyterian Churches of North America

REV. PHIL OWEN
Berean Free Presbyterian

Boston, New York

The Boston, New York, church looks forward to the May 18th wedding of Ed Domer and Meghan Breindel, who is the only daughter of one of the elders, Dan Breindel. Many unsaved relatives from both families plan to be in attendance, and Mr. Owen would appreciate prayer for the Lord's help in the ceremony.

The congregation is planning its annual week of prayer the first full week of April and is asking the Lord for a time of refreshing and renewed zeal in the work of the Lord.

Please remember a teenager named Lacy, who heard the church caroling in December, appeared at recent services, and made a seemingly genuine profession of faith. She has since strayed, however, and needs the strong hand of the Lord to crush an addiction to sin.

Please pray for Brett Moody, who is at Fort Leonard Wood (Missouri) in basic training to become an Army chaplain. He and Alyssa will be apart for four months.

Calgary Free Presbyterian

Calgary, Alberta

Many in the Calgary congregation have been blessed with good health and strength through the winter season. Mr. John Hodge has come through surgeries for skin cancer very well and has been able to assist in preaching. Over the last month Mr. John Dumigan ministered to the people with much acceptance. Numbers have been reduced somewhat over the last two months, yet visitors have been attending.

Of late there have been some good contacts through the radio ministry, especially after a snowy Sunday when travel was impossible and many turned to the radio for church. Radio continues to be the main means of outreach for the Calgary congregation. Pray it will be effective to lead people to attend the services. A special service and dinner are being held on Easter Friday. Mr. Calvin Goligher is scheduled to preach both on Easter Friday and Sunday. Pray for local men who will be filling the pulpit during April.

REV. IAN GOLIGHER
Cloverdale Free Presbyterian

Cloverdale, British Columbia

Since its last report the Lord has been gracious to bless the meetings of the Cloverdale church with His presence and to give an increase in attendance. The people continue to pray for additions to the Sunday school. Of late the nursery has been kept busy with new children. On March 12 the Chu family was blessed with the arrival of baby Ella, weighing 5 pounds 6 ounces. Ella is a sister for Hanna (6) and Noah (4).

On Sunday evening March 17 Rev. Ian Goligher preached a special message on the history of St. Patrick. The congregation's annual general meeting will be held on March 20 with reports on the various ministries of the church. The congregation is looking forward to the Easter services with a service and dinner on Friday the 29th. Pray that visitors will come to hear the message of the cross.

On April 8 Mr. Goligher is scheduled to travel to Sri Lanka to preach at a family Bible camp for the Bible Presbyterian Church, a mission church of the Jurong Bible Presbyterian Church in Singapore. There will also be opportunity to preach in the local churches and to teach at their Bible college in Colombo. Pray for safe travel and for great grace to the hearts of the people through the ministry of the Lord's Word.

REV. COLIN MERCER
DR. CHARLES BARRETT
DR. ALAN CAIRNS, emeritus
Faith Free Presbyterian

Greenville,
South Carolina

Faith Free Presbyterian Church is thankful to the Lord for His continual presence in the services and for the ongoing responses to its Sunday morning radio broadcast. This hour-long program airs on the new conservative talk station 94.5 FM. The church also continues to broadcast on the Internet at wmuu.com, although the extent of the listening audience is unclear at present. Recently the committee approved two new church signs at the front of the property. These have just been completed and make the presence of the church more noticeable to passing traffic. The congregation is praying that the Lord will use the radio and Internet broadcasts in the salvation of the lost and also to encourage others to visit the church.

The church family continues to pray for those in the congregation who are ill and is thankful for tokens for good as far as their health is concerned. The congregation is presently preparing for the spring Ministers' Week of Prayer and is making necessary arrangements for the various meetings and activities. Mr. Mercer says, "Our great burden is to know continually the presence of the Lord among us, the moving of His Spirit in the salvation of sinners, and the edification of His people. We are also preparing for the summer camp and request that the Lord's people pray for a rich sense of His presence and power at that time."

REV. DAVID McCLELLAND
Grace Free Presbyterian

Litchfield,
New Hampshire

After years of discussion, the New Hampshire church's building project is finally becoming a reality. The project is scheduled for commencement at the beginning of April, and, Lord willing, should be completed by Thanksgiving. The Lord has answered many prayers bringing the right people along at the right time with the right skills.

The church is constantly reminded that the real building project consists of building souls in Christ and by the gospel. That work has taken some encouraging steps forward in recent times as well.

Pray for the Amador family as they continue to come to grips with their great loss. The family has been used of God to give the entire body a lesson in gospel grieving. Pray that the many lives impacted by Jesse's life and death would continue to know the Lord's nearness.

Pray for the upcoming ladies' retreat scheduled for April 11-13. Bridget Barrett will be the guest speaker. Her husband, Dr. Charles Barrett, will be preaching on the Lord's Day.

DR. MARK ALLISON
Free Presbyterian Church of Malvern

Malvern, Pennsylvania

The Malvern congregation is looking forward to the ministry of Kathy Walker on March 24. She will be speaking in the adult Sabbath school about her work in Kenya and then giving a testimony during the morning service. Pray for her and for the blessing of the Lord as she begins her tour of the FPCNA churches.

REV. DAVE MOOK
Phoenix Free Presbyterian

Phoenix, Arizona

On February 22, the Phoenix church launched a series of informal men's prayer meetings under the name Fourth Friday. Each month on the fourth Friday morning at 8:00, any of the men who are available can meet with Rev. Dave Mook at the church for an hour of prayer. Two men joined the pastor at the first such meeting.

The church held its annual week of prayer March 11-15 with public prayer sessions each evening. Attendance was very good, and there was a blessed spirit of supplication and intercession.

The congregation is planning two events for April. The annual congregational meeting will be held on the evening of April 5, beginning with a congregational dinner at the church. On April 23, a delegation from the presbytery will conduct the ordination and installation service for the church's first ruling elder, Herb Tschappler, whose election on February 3 was sustained by the presbytery.

Two young ladies who have grown up in the church have expressed interest in applying for communicant membership, and Rev. Mook hopes to meet with them soon. The congregation has welcomed several visitors to its services during the winter months.

Finally, after a lengthy application process, the church committee has received the news that its effort to exempt its property from property tax has been successful. A representative of the county assessor's office said that the county treasurer should be refunding taxes the church has paid in the past.

REV. REGGIE CRANSTON
Port Hope Free Presbyterian

Port Hope, Ontario

The Port Hope church will hold its Easter Bible Conference March 29–31 with Rev. Derek Erwin (Orlando FPC) as the guest speaker. Please pray for the Lord's blessing on these special meetings.

Heritage Free Presbyterian

Prince George, British Columbia

On Sundays February 17 and 24 Rev. Geoff Banister ministered with encouragement to the congregation in Prince George. Rev. Myron Mooney is scheduled to minister on March 24 and 31. Advertising in the local newspaper has brought in a few visitors to the services, even in the snowy season. Mrs. Jean Nillson, who broke her ankle, is now attending the Sunday services again.

Pray for the congregation to know the Lord's grace and for opportunities to promote the ministry of the church. Pray also for preachers to visit periodically to encourage the people through the live ministry of the Lord's Word. When there is no preacher present, the congregation depends on webcast services on SermonAudio.

REV. MYRON MOONEY
Trinity Free Presbyterian

Trinity, Alabama

The congregation at Trinity Free Presbyterian Church continues to rejoice in the Lord's blessings to them. A new baby girl was born to Joseph and Sarah Bearden on March 5, 2013. Mercy Damaris joins big sister Hosanna. Baby Mercy is the last of the baby boom at the church for now. The eleven children under four years of age are the direct answer to the prayers of several older ladies in the church. Wedding bells were ringing in March for both Joseph Frank and Jeremiah Mooney. Congratulations to Joseph and Audrey Frank, who were married in Indianapolis on March 9. Jeremiah and Anna Mooney tied the knot on March 16. Little Calvin Anderson, who was in the University of Alabama at Birmingham neonatal intensive care unit in December, recently received a very good report from the doctors. Visitors continue to trickle in to church services on a regular basis. Finally, there is an increasing interest in the prison regarding Bible truth both in the weekly Bible study and in correspondence with Pastor Mooney.

Please pray for the several families with young children and new babies as the parents endeavor to train the children for the Lord. Also pray for Pastor Mooney as he ministers the gospel in Prince George March 22–April 1.
